TO CUBA WITH LOVE

Looking forward to returning to Cuba, in November, for the third time this year. The impact of Covid with over 8,500 deaths, the oil tanker fires destroying 40 percent of their reserves, followed by hurricane Ian with winds over 200 km have only added to the hardship of the Cubans. Reapers continues to send money and ship everything and anything, as the needs are never ending. Monies previously designated for projects is being redirected to Relief Aid.

Even with all the disasters, the number one question to me is, "When are you coming back to our Presbytery to host another Leadership Conference?" We are planning on a two-day Leadership Conference in Santa Cruz DN.

Reaper's mandate remains the same:
Empower, Equip, Evangelize, Encourage.

SUMMER CAMP MEETING

I cannot think of a summer where I did not attend a camp, work at a camp or preach at a camp. With many of the Covid restrictions lifted it was so good to be back in person with a live audience last summer. There is just something about the spiritual atmosphere of camp meeting. The moments in the Word, extended worship and prayer, altar times, meeting new people, seeing old friends.

I have met hundreds of people that were saved, baptized, healed and called to ministry at Camp. Our churches are healthier when families return from camp meeting.

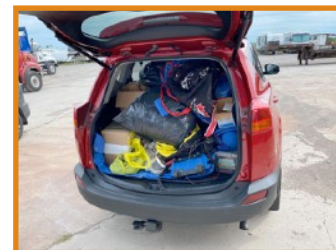

REAPERS WAREHOUSE

We are always collecting men's winter clothes, coats, boots, gloves, socks, hats, hygiene products, sleeping bags and knap sacks.

Gift cards are a great way to support those on the streets.

Sewing accessories/material are constantly needed for our sewing centres in Cuba. Items are collected for our Cuba charity auctions with Maxsold.

THE UNFINISHED TASK - EVANGELISM

Evangelism is the greatest work in the world yet one of the most neglected in the church. Evangelism is the responsibility of every Christian yet many have professionalized it, departmentalized it and centralized it. There are hundreds of worthy causes in the world but only one with eternal perspective and purpose...soul winning! It is the good news of the Gospel that breaks chains, shatters death, rescues from sin, offers eternal life and fellowship with God in heaven.
